

To Whom it May Concern,

I hope this letter finds you well. As a dedicated educator in your school/district, I am always striving to improve my skills and knowledge to better serve my students. As such, I am writing to request funding to buy Leah Mermelstein Consulting's Mentor Text Bundle.

This bundle has both grade-level and subject-level writing samples with color coding to make teacher and understanding various elements simple. I will be able to enhance my teaching skills, get resources to use right away in my classroom, and stay up-to-date with the latest research in writing. You can learn more about the Mentor Texts at leahmermelstein.com/mentortexts-sale.

I believe that the benefits of this mentor text bundle will not only help me become a better teacher, but will also positively impact my students' learning experiences. By being exposed to the latest literacy research and tools, I will be better equipped to design and implement engaging and effective lessons that cater to all of my learners.

Therefore, I kindly request funding to cover the cost of this resource. The cost will be $50 for one mentor text bundle, which I can share with my grade level colleagues. Thank you for considering my request. I look forward to hearing back from you.

Sincerely,
